Do you need to print your ticket?

If you wish, use the electronic format to present your ticket on your phone.

This ticket gives you access to the permanent collections and exhibitions. Priority access is only valid for entrance to the museum.

Last admission to the temporary exhibition spaces is 5.15pm.

What happens if you arrive late?

After the reservation time (over 30 minutes late), you forfeit priority access via the reserved entrance. You must go to the main line with your ticket to access the museum.

If you have any other questions, go to the FAQ: billetterie.musee-orangerie.fr.

Café and Bookshop-Giftshop are accessible with the museum entrance ticket

ATTENTION! Due to ongoing construction work, we have to inform you that our checkroom capacity has been reduced. We kindly ask you to limit your personal belongings on your next visit. It is strictly forbidden to bring suitcases (of any size) or bulky items. Thank you for your understanding.

Thanks to the lifts and access ramps, all of the museum circuit, the temporary exhibitions and the boutique areas are accessible to people with reduced mobility and to pushchairs.
